STINGERS; REDMEN IN BENEFIT GAME

Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m. at the Concordia Arena the Concordia University Stingers and the McGill University Redmen will meet in the third annual Chiasson Cup game with all of the proceeds going to The Quebec Society for Disabled Children.

This year the game will take on added significance as the two cross-town rivals battle for a berth in the Q.U.H.L. playoffs. In fact McGill clinched at least fourth place on Sunday night at McGill by hanging on to edge Concordia 6-5. With the win the Redmen moved to within one point of second place Ottawa but still only four points ahead of the last place Stingers. Concordia meanwhile will have to beat McGill or risk missing the playoffs for the second year in a row.

The Stingers played twice last week. In addition to the loss at McGill, Concordia scored a stunning 7-4 victory on Thursday at Loyola over the first place U.Q.T.R. Patriotes. The Stingers will play U.Q.T.R. Friday in Cap de la Madelaine before returning to Loyola for the Saturday date with McGill. The Stingers have not lost at home in the second half of the season posting an overall record of 6-0-1.
